

No champagne

VERSE 1

The mountain top seems way too high
I don't care about the view or the sky
Could be six years old or a hundred
It's not something that takes long to wonder
I would always choose your perfume
Over the smell of the grass

VERSE 2

Smoking handrolled cigarettes
Wondering if we'll live to remember or forget
All the laughs, all the cries, all the dreaming
All the stars we could see through the ceiling
All the candles we blew
Without taking a breath to look back

CHORUS

I stay true to my memory
And if that doesn't fade, honey
You and me, we've lived
The cutest love story

Don't weep, I left you what I wrote
Along with a heart that never broke
This ain't the end
Skip for the next episode

VERSE 3

You know the path, just walk back home
It'll be the same, I'll be there just not flesh and bone
To our song I'll keep singing along
While you wait for the sunset to come
I will drink no champagne
But my clothes will remain on your floor

CHORUS

I stay true to my memory
And if that doesn't fade, honey
You and me, we've lived
The cutest love story

Don't weep, I left you what I wrote
Along with a heart that never broke
This ain't the end
Skip for the next episode

BRIDGE

Just like the moon talks with the sun
They keep telling me I'm done
I guess they think I am just too old to run
Yes, I'll run, but for tonight I'll just be waiting
Yes, I'll run, but for tonight I'll fall asleep
I will skip for the best part
Dream with a better heart
Or a superpower
Tomorrow you'll sit alone and count the hours
Tomorrow you'll talk about how the whole world could be ours
And yet, I'll just wish for some Flowers... flowers...